

BONNIE S. Nachamie
Principal
Bonnie S. Nachamie, P.C.

Bonnie S. Nachamie is a principal at Bonnie S. Nachamie, P.C., which provides legal services to mortgage bankers, mortgage brokers, federal and state depository institutions and federal credit unions in mortgage lending compliance and regulatory matters. The firm assists companies in obtaining banking licenses throughout the country, represents clients before administrative agencies in enforcement actions and provides counsel on mortgage and financial service related matters...

She has been an instructor at AARMR examiner training schools lecturing on topics such as RESPA, TILA, ECOA, and closing practices. She lectures to industry professionals and trade associations on topics ranging from Fair Lending Laws, Ethics and relevant Federal and State Lending Laws and Regulations. She has presented at continuing education programs for the New York State Bar Association on predatory lending and fraudulent loan practices. As one of the founding members of the Academy of Professional Mortgage Loan Originator Licensing, Bonnie qualified as an NMLS instructor providing pre-licensing and continuing education to Mortgage Loan Originators.

Bonnie is a partner at First National Compliance Solutions, Inc., a company that provides guidance to financial institutions in building and maintaining robust and compliant business infrastructures and in the development, implementation and monitoring of pertinent and effective policies and procedures.

She is a member of several industry associations including MBAofNY, ESMBA, MBA, NYAMB and APMW as well as being a member of the Planning Committee for the Northeast Regional Conference of Mortgage Bankers.