Community and Life-Long Learning (Call)

Sponsored by the University of Portland MA in Pastoral Ministry Program

The Community and Life-long Learning (Call) experience is an opportunity for priests, deacons, laity, and religious to join in prayer, study and community as they explore a variety of topics. CALL workshops combine presentations rich in theological insight, pastoral skills, and contemporary questions and concerns with time for prayer, discussion and relationship-building.

Igniting the Fire: Breaking Open the Word to Unleash the Power of God's Spirit

This workshop/retreat will draw us into the depths of the fire of God's merciful love in our own lives. It will provide resources for individual spiritual development for all people of faith desiring a deeper relationship with Christ. At the same time, it will provide resources for Retreat Directors, Parish Ministers, RCIA Facilitators and Sponsors, Deacons, Teachers, Parish Leaders, and all who find themselves in situations where they are called upon to give spoken witness to their faith. All are welcome, whether for personal spiritual enrichment or enrichment of your ministry.
