

Volunteers of America Dining Center Services

Since 1973, The Nutrition Services Division has provided hot, nutritious meals at dining centers throughout the Denver area. Currently, Nutrition Services operates 29 dining centers providing food, access to community resources and positive social interaction to persons 60 years age or older who reside in the following counties: Adams, Arapahoe, Clear Creek, Denver, Douglas, Gilpin, and Jefferson.

Cost

Clients are asked to make a voluntary contribution toward the cost of the meal. Suggested contribution: $2.50

Eligibility

Eligibility for dining center meals is stipulated in Title III of the Older Americans Act, Nutrition Programs for the Elderly. To qualify as a participant, an individual must meet one of the following criteria:

- 60 years of age or older
- An eligible participant's spouse (any age)
- Resident of a facility where a dining center is located
- Volunteer under 60 years of age
