Option to announce the LVNG With Website

Come to the LVNG With lung cancer event at the San Diego Marriott Mission Valley on Saturday, October 24, de 9:00 am to 3:15 pm. It's a chance for you and your loved one to connect with other people living with lung cancer. This interactive community event will offer emotional connection, insights, and shared experiences from people living with lung cancer. On a more intimate level, smaller discussion groups will talk about the specific needs of both people living with cancer and loved ones. To register, visit www.lvng.org
