

What's Your Niche? Get Involved.

Your Chamber has a number of awesome groups that are geared toward specific interests and we want to make sure you are aware of them so you can get the most out of your Chamber investment. Each of these groups meets on a regular basis to share information, learn from each other or industry experts and make new connections.

WomEn's Circle

The goal of the WomEn's Circle is for its' members to develop leadership skills, build business connections, gain professional and personal skills and be energized, educated and empowered. Each meeting has time for networking and a speaker presentation to help you grow on a personal and professional level. Now is the time to join The Circle and save as our new series of programming has just begun! Learn more and join.

Our next event will be held on Thursday, November 19 from 11:30a.m. – 1:00p.m. Our featured speaker, Erin Dady, will help define the differences between leading and managing. Register today.

Legislative Breakfasts

Your Chamber offers real-time information and resources on a number of issues important to your business through Legislative Breakfast Series. The breakfasts are designed for business community members to hear first-hand from lawmakers and industry experts on how legislation within all levels of government affect their businesses' bottom line, job creation, growth and expansion. Members can also communicate their concerns, comments and questions. This annual series runs November through June with the first program on November 6 featuring Minnesota's Secretary of State Steve Simon. Now is the time join and save by purchasing a series pass! Learn more and register.

South Metro Young Professionals

South Metro Young Professionals (SMYPros) is a joint program between Dakota County Regional Chamber and Burnsville Chamber. This group is for enthusiastic and talented young professionals in their 20s and 30s who are passionate about developing their skills in today's marketplace while building valuable relationships. SMYPros members gain valuable networking opportunities through their personal and professional connections within the communities they live, work, and play in. Check out the next event on Wednesday, November 18 at 7:30a.m. which will feature speaker Jack Stahlmann talking about "The Intangible It." Learn more about the group.

ChamberNet

ChamberNet groups operate as lead/referral networking groups that utilize a non-competing core of business people to build relationships and generate additional business leads for one another. Currently we have two groups that meet on a bi-monthly basis. This Business-to-Business (B2B) format is for business people who primarily sell to other businesses. These groups are open to visitors on a non-compete basis. Learn more.

Business Owner's Roundtable

Business Owner's Roundtable provides fellow business owners with a forum to develop successful business strategies, engage a sounding board, and hear new tactical ideas. We promote open exchange of ideas through group discussion and individual expert presentations. With committed attendance being a requirement to join one of the groups, please be sure the monthly meeting time works with your schedule. Learn more.

If you have questions about any of these groups, please contact Emily Corson, ecorson@dcrchamber.com or 651.452.9872, for more information.