

Tomas Finds His Tomorrow...continued

Then, ever so calmly, the healer he sought asks a question as she lays a foundation for an introduction to an eternal healer, Jesus Christ. Are you going to church? No, Tomas replied, but I had people pray for me.

A bit later, Dr. Lisa share Tomas' story to our highland evangelist, Gaspar Chan, he replied, "I need to talk to him...find a way to get him to Clinica Caris." How appropriate since caris is typically translated as grace, favor or the free expression of loving kindness. All of which Tomas would soon receive!

Tomas made his way to Clinica Caris, Gaspar even made his way to Tomas' home in Chucalibal and shared the gospel message. A message of hope with a promise, the comforter, the Holy Spirit. He made sure Tomas met Diego Tol, a brother from Las Trampas, now an elder. This brother once sat where Tomas sits...broken, seeking, searching, begging and ready for a new tomorrow.

God's family, the church, ministered to Tomas over the course of several weeks and in true disciple fashion, Tomas shared what he was learning with a young lady and her husband who had contemplated suicide.

On April 11, a glorious day in the Guatemala highlands, Tomas and his friends named Jesus as Lord, were buried with him baptism and found an eternal tomorrow!
