

AMGA Certified Guide/Guest Guide Policy

1. Guest guides must be alpine certified
2. Interested guides should contact Nat Patridge (nat@exumguides.com) to apply. All requests must include a brief resume (to include: Number of years guiding, average number of guiding days per year over the past 3 years, a list of other companies you have worked for, completed training, and certifications), a copy of your AMGA alpine certification, a copy of current WFR and CPR certification cards and your guiding plan (routes, dates, number of clients, etc.).
3. Guest guides will be Exum employees for the duration of their accepted guiding plan.
4. All guest guides will be expected to read and sign an agreement stating that they will follow all Exum and Grand Teton National Park procedures and policies.
6. The Guest Guide's clients must make reservations through the Exum office (the office will be advised to expect a reservation once the guide's plan is accepted). Clients will be charged appropriate PRIVATE rates. Two day Grand Teton climbs will be scheduled on space available basis only and reservations should be made as early as possible. The guest guide will be paid the stated wages for the activities completed. With the exception of July 20 – August 15, the guest guide will also be paid a 10% commission on the gross income generated. Interested guides can review the Exum website to be aware of our pricing. www.exumguides.com
