ROOM AND BOARD

The cost will be $120 per person double occupancy or $200 per person single occupancy at the Comfort Suites located right off Exit 52 of I-26, Clinton. This will include two nights lodging and five meals, breakfast at the Comfort Suites and lunch and dinner at the Presbyterian College Cafeteria. The cost for those commuting will be $75, which includes three meals at PC and registration fee.

COURSES OFFERED

A. New Testament Survey (Core Course)

This class is an overview of the New Testament books in canonical order with attention to each book's historical, literary, and theological contexts to better understand the gospel they proclaim. Class limit: 20

LEADER: Malcolm Doubles, is currently Visiting Professor of Religious Studies at St. Andrews University, Laurinburg, NC. He was formerly Professor of Religion at Coker College for many years. Education: Davidson College, Union Theological Seminary, St. Andrews University of Scotland.

B. Pastoral Care (Core Course)

In this class, we will consider the Biblical and theological mandates for pastoral care and provide exposure to some techniques for pastoral counseling and care. Class limit: 20

LEADER: Harold "Hutch" Hutchinson, has a D. Min. from Union Theological Seminary and is a certified pastoral counselor licensed as a NC state marriage and family therapist. He currently is in private practice for pastoral counseling. He has served as pastor of a church for 11 years and has been serving interim positions for 9 years.

C. Preaching (Core Course)

We will look at the theology of preaching from a reformed perspective and then examine the basics of sermon preparations with emphasis on practical methods and available resources. (Prerequisites: Bible I, Bible II, Reformed Theology) Class limit: 12

LEADER: Walter Taylor is the Pastor of Oak Island Presbyterian Church, Oak Island, North Carolina.

D. Reformed Theology (Core Course)

This course looks at the theology of the Presbyterian Church. A confessional church rooted in the Protestant Reformation of the 16th Century, we worship Jesus Christ as Lord over all of life; we seek to do all things according to the scriptures; and we explore life vigorously under God through the eyes of faith. Class limit: 20

LEADER: Michael Bush is Interim Pastor of First Presbyterian Church in Athens, Alabama. He was also director of the Office of Presbyterian Ministries at Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary, and taught Worship & Preaching at Erskine Theological Seminary. His academic field of research is history of doctrine, focusing on Reformed theology in the 16th through the 18th centuries. He has pastored churches in Virginia, Alabama, and Georgia, and served several congregations as an interim pastor.

E. The Book of Amos (Elective Course)

This course explores the literary, historical, and theological dimensions of the Book of Amos. In this course, Dr. Bryant plans to use some material he has collected from Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. (i.e., his letter from the Birmingham jail) to help students see more of how Amos still helps us so much today.

LEADER: Dr. Robert Bryant is the Kristen Herrington Professor of Bible, Chair of the Department of Religion and Philosophy at Presbyterian College in Clinton, SC, and a teaching elder in the Presbyterian Church (USA). He is the author of The Risen Crucified Christ in Galatians, The Gospel of Matthew: God With Us, First Corinthians: One in Christ, and of numerous articles. He has been a visiting scholar for Duke University, has taught at Union Presbyterian Seminary, and twice has been named a German Academic Exchange Fellow to teach and lecture in Germany. Dr. Bryant has also served churches as pastor and supply pastor in the Synods of the South Atlantic (South Carolina and Georgia) and Mid-Atlantic (North Carolina and Virginia). He and his family live in Clinton, SC.

F. Practical Training for Ruling Elders (elective course)

The course will seek to provide a clearer understanding of the call to the ordered ministry of Ruling Elder in the PC(USA) and to equip participants for service.

LEADER: Jim Rowell, a member of Forest Lake Presbyterian Church in Columbia, is a Commissioned Ruling Elder serving as stated clerk of Trinity Presbytery. He completed the Lay Pastor Track of the S.C. Lay School of Theology in 2008 and has served as stated supply for two churches in the Presbytery. A graduate of the University of South Carolina, he is owner and broker-in-charge of a real estate company in Columbia.

SOUTH CAROLINA LAY SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY The Two-Track Approach

The S.C. Lay School of Theology offers a two-track approach to receiving either a certificate or a diploma. Ordained or non-ordained students may enroll in the Lay Enrichment (LE) Track. The Lay Pastor Track (LP) is provided for ruling elders who want to become Lay Pastor candidates. They must receive endorsement from their Session and from the Committee on Ministry of Presbytery. Once the endorsement is complete, a copy of the form will be sent to the registrar of the school.

LE Track students and LP Track students will enroll in and attend the same classes. Students in the LP Track will be assigned extra reading and will complete an examination or paper to be graded by the Lay School faculty who teach the course. Faculty who teach LP track students will receive extra compensation for the extra responsibilities. This additional cost will be covered by a $20 academic fee paid by the student for each course taken. A student in the Lay Pastor Track (LP) will have a deadline for submitting work to be graded. If the student does not submit the work by the deadline date, then the professor will report “no work submitted” for the record, and the student will have to re-take the course. February 15 is the deadline for receipt of work for the fall session; July 1 is the deadline for receipt of work for the spring session.

Certificate or Diploma graduates of the school will be able to continue taking courses through Continuing Education (CE) coursework. Students who receive a diploma in the Lay Pastor Track will be required to take one refresher course per year in Continuing Education (CE) in order to keep the diploma validated.

Core Courses for the Lay Enrichment Track:

1. Worship and Sacraments (Spring)
2. Old Testament Survey (Spring)
3. New Testament Survey (Fall)
4. Reformed Theology (Fall)
5. Polity (Spring)
6. Church History (Spring)
7. Pastoral Care (Fall)

Core Courses for the Lay Pastor Track:

1. Old Testament Survey (Spring)
2. New Testament Survey (Fall)
3. Reformed Theology (Fall)
4. Polity (Spring)
5. Church History (Spring)
6. Pastoral Care (Fall)
7. Worship and Sacraments (Spring)
8. Preaching (Fall)

In each presbytery, the Committee on Ministry has supervision over Commissioned Ruling Elders. In order to enter the LP track at the Lay School, a student must be a ruling elder, who is endorsed for the LP Track by the Session of the student's church and by the Committee on Ministry of the presbytery. A student may enroll in the LP Track pending endorsement; however, all endorsements must be received by the registrar prior to the next session of Lay School in order for the student to continue in the LP Track. If courses have been taken prior to 2002 (when the two-track system was adopted) in the Lay School, it is up to the Committee to determine whether or not those courses count toward commissioning as a lay pastor.

If a student is enrolled in the Lay School and completes the required core course work (seven courses), then a Lay School of Theology certificate in the Lay Enrichment Track will be awarded. If a ruling elder completes the course work (eight courses) with satisfactory grades, then the ruling elder will receive the Lay School of Theology diploma in the Lay Pastor Track. Receiving a diploma in the Lay Pastor Track only certifies the ruling elder's eligibility for commissioning if a presbytery issues a call. If called, the ruling elder must be examined and approved by presbytery in order to be commissioned for a specific call.
