

RABBIS' ROUNDTABLE: THE MEANING OF REPENTANCE

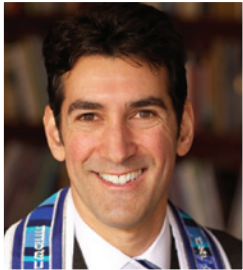

Wednesday, September 2, 2015

7:00 – 8:30 pm

Ronald C. Wornick Jewish Day School,
Ulam Gadol

Free

Teshuvah (repentance) is the personal and communal spiritual task of the High Holidays. We are invited to assess our deeds, to ask for and give forgiveness, and to make amends where possible. Join local rabbis who will discuss texts on repentance and share their beliefs about sin, forgiveness, and the human condition.

Rabbi Daniel Feder
Peninsula Temple Sholom

Rabbi Corey Helfand
Peninsula Sinai Congregation

Rabbi Nat Ezray
Congregation Beth Jacob

Rabbi Dennis Eisner
Peninsula Temple Beth El

Moderated by Rabbi Lavey Derby
PJCC Director of Jewish Life

Co-sponsored by Peninsula Temple Sholom, Peninsula Sinai Congregation, Peninsula Temple Beth El and Congregation Beth Jacob.

PJCC Pre-registration is required—reserve your seat today!
650.212.PJCC (7522) • pjcc.org

JEW.A426c

The PJCC is proud to be a part of the Initiative on Jewish Peoplehood presenting educational and cultural programs that explore Jewish heritage, identity, and community. This initiative is co-funded by the Koret Foundation and the Taube Foundation for Jewish Life & Culture.

KORET
FOUNDATION

