

FREE DANCE LESSONS are being offered by professional instructors for those wanting to learn Scottish Dancing (Celtic) dancing. The location is 1615 N. Ogden Street in central Denver and the time is every Wednesday night from 6:30 - 8:00 p.m. It is a church located on the corner, "Gardens of Divine Hope Church".

Come for an educational experience to learn the history of our country while dancing to the music of bagpipes and professional musicians. It is fun, informative, and exciting. Parking is to the north of the building.
