

Spring 2015

Dear Parents or Guardians,

As we approach the end of the year it is time to consider what action might be taken over the summer to maintain or improve the reading gains your child has made. Here is a resource list of several programs, camps, and individuals who might assist you as you consider your summer plans. This is not a complete list or a recommendation but instead a list of programs I have heard about. Sign up begins now for many of these programs or will be opening shortly.
