

St Paul's Episcopal Church Saints and Mystics series

Julian of Norwich

Explore ~ Experience ~ Express

Julian of Norwich (c. 8 November 1342 – c. 1416) was an English anchoress who is regarded as an important Christian mystic but has never been canonized or beatified. Her work, Revelations of Divine Love, is the first book in the English language known to have been written by a woman.

In our retreat, we will study her optimistic theology which spoke of God's love and compassion during a time of turmoil, and her emphasis on God as the "true Mother of life and of all things." There will be time for contemplation and creativity.
