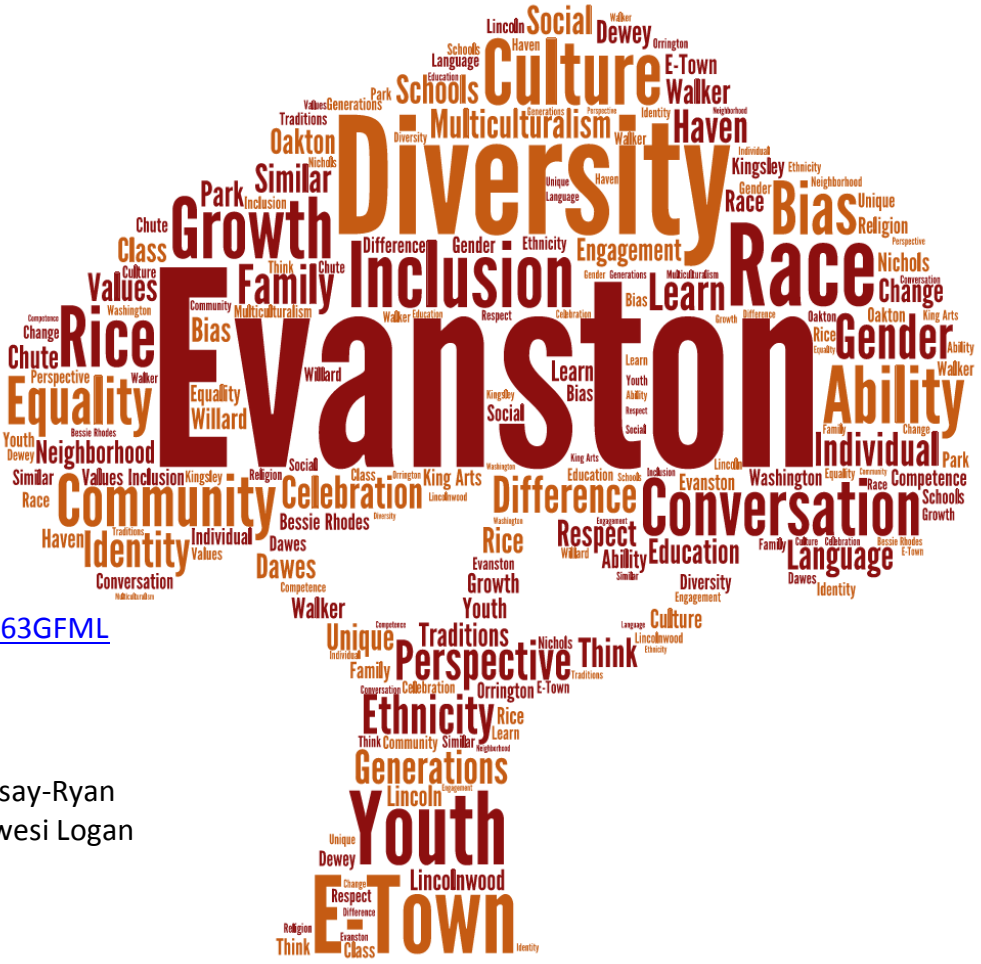
Navigating Real Life Diversity with Our Kids

New tools and research to help us talk with our kids about culture, race, gender, ability, family structures, and other forms of difference

A four part series facilitated by Diversity and Inclusion experts
Elisabeth "Biz" Lindsay-Ryan & Dr. Gilo Kwesi Logan

Part One
Tuesday, October 7
6:30-8:30pm
Evanston Public Library,
Large Community Room



Free and Open to the Public
Childcare & Spanish translation
RSVPs appreciated, not required
RSVP necessary for childcare:
https://www.surveymonkey.com/s/C63GFML or NavigatingDiversity@gmail.com

Save the Dates
November 4 with Elisabeth "Biz" Lindsay-Ryan
Feb. 18 and March 18 with Dr. Gilo Kwesi Logan

Elisabeth "Biz" Lindsay-Ryan is a diversity professor, trainer, and consultant. She has been a member of the Part-Time Faculty at DePaul University's School for New Learning since 2004. As a consultant Biz has worked with numerous educational institutions and companies.

Dr. Gilo Logan is an internationally recognized diversity consultant, educator, writer and speaker. He is a certified diversity practitioner, member of the National Diversity Council, diversity columnist for the Fiji Sun, and also serves as adjunct faculty of diversity and social justice in Chicago, IL.

Presented by The Evanston/Skokie PTA Council in partnership with the Evanston Public Library, Evanston/Skokie School District 65, and Youth Organizations Umbrella (Y.O.U.)

PTA everychild.onevoice. evanston public library