

2015 - 2016 Concert Schedule

Oct. 18. at Cony H.S., 60 Pierce Drive, Augusta. Fiddle-icious. An open community-based orchestra of over 140 members to preserve the cultural heritage of Maine's traditional fiddle music, led by legendary Don Roy.

Nov. 8. The Easy Happy Show. Marcia Gallagher's love of jazz and Katie Daggett's strong folk influence complement each other, leaving you tapping your toes and smiling, keeping you entertained with their light-hearted banter! Come listen, laugh and sing along.

Dec. 20, at South Parish Congregational Church, 9 Church St., Augusta. A Christmas Concert with Downeast Brass and Jay Zoller, organist. A popular quintet, a fine organist, and a classic organ. No better way to welcome the holidays!

Jan. 24, 2016 (no snow date). The Gawler Family with Jessie and Greg Boardman*. Well known in central Maine for their Irish, Celtic, and Quebecois repertoire. Advance ticket purchase recommended.

Feb. 7 (snow date Feb. 28). 1 pm pre-concert talk. George Lopez, Classical pianist*. Hailed by LA Times for his "...musical perspective, continuity, and kaleidoscopic colors". Advocate of music education. Popular lecturer on the arts.

Mar. 13 (snow date Mar. 20). Dave Rowe and his easy listening originals, together with The Squid Jiggers, Dave & Troy Bennett combining their talents on guitar, bass, bodhran, and tin whistles to lay down a thunderous musical base for their robust vocal harmonies.

Apr. 17. 1 pm pre-concert talk. Maine's DaPonte String Quartet: Dino Liva (violin), Lydia Forbes (violin), Myles Jordan (cello), and Kirsten Monke (viola)...classical music at its best.

May 15. Erica Brown & The Bluegrass Connection. Traditional Bluegrass and French Canadian music. "For the music of her heritage and her age, there's no one better...Don Roy."

Concerts are Sundays 2-4 pm except for the indicated 1 pm pre-concert talks.
