

As the end of the year rapidly approaches, it is imperative that students continue to fulfill their community service hours. Below you will find some great opportunities:

March 14: Special Olympics Summer Games. To sign up, go to www.SignUpGenius.com/go/9040E48A4A92BAB9-volusiaflagler1/14853919

March 14: South Daytona Elementary Spring Carnival. To volunteer, contact Tasha at 386-322-6180, ext. 33506 or e- southdaytonadragonspta@gmail.com. Please include your name, phone number and time available.

March 16: Locks of Love. This will be held from 2:00–4:00 pm at St. Brendan Catholic School, 1000 Ocean Shore Blvd., Ormond Beach. You must have 10 inches of hair you are willing to cut and donate to a cancer patient who needs a wig.

March 16: The FAITH Action Assembly will be held at 6:00 pm at Bethune-Cookman Performing Arts Center. Join Volusia County residents as they address community issues, including homelessness. You will receive three (3) hours of community service for this event. Adults are encouraged to attend this event as well!

March 21: Ponce Inlet Beach Clean-up. This Lopez event will be held from 8:00-11:00 am. Transportation will be provided from campus. Permission forms can be found in Theology or on the community service bulletin board.

May 2: Relay for Life Team Pride is looking for participants. Contact Sally Griser at 386-562-8093 to volunteer.

Halifax Health Hospice is always looking for long-term volunteers in many areas. For more information, contact Diane Adams at 386-322-4701.

PRAYER OPPORTUNITY

I would also like to share a wonderful prayer opportunity open to all. Mercy on Main is an evening of music, prayer and community building sponsored by Our Lady of Lourdes Catholic Church. It will be held on Friday, March 20 at 779 Main Street, Daytona Beach. Mass will be celebrated at 8:00 pm followed by prayer, praise and worship until 11:00 pm. Adults are needed as chaperones. Contact Jeanine Correia at 386-255-0433 if you can help out.
