

Jeffrey Mohrman is the Assistant Director of the Franklinton Development Association (“FDA”). A graduate of the Ohio State University Moritz College of Law and Grove City College, Jeffery is a licensed attorney in the State of Ohio. Jeffery serves on the boards of Franklinton Gardens and Gladden Community House and provides many hours of pro bono legal work advising small businesses on start-up and transactional matters. Jeffery oversees FDA’s commercial and housing development operations, including the acquisition, rehabilitation, lease-up and/or sale of more than 25,000 sq. ft. of affordable housing and 60,000 sq. ft. of commercial space. Jeffery has created multiple initiatives and has increased both FDA’s reach in the community and its ability to be financially sustainable. Prior to joining FDA in April 2011, Jeffery worked for two Columbus law firms, the Ohio Rehabilitation Services Commission, and the Ohio Department of Transportation. Jeffery also served as a legal extern of Justice Paul Pfeifer of the Ohio Supreme Court. Jeffery, his wife Heather and their newborn son Pax are Franklinton residents and are dedicated to serving that community as it continues on the cutting edge of smart, ethical neighborhood revitalization.
