

Grady E. Williams Sr. is Vice President and Chief Compliance Officer (CCO) for Nationwide Bank® and Nationwide Advantage Mortgage Company,® affiliates of Nationwide®. In this capacity, he is responsible for overseeing the establishment, implementation and administration of the bank and mortgage company entity-wide compliance and risk management programs, including the development of requisite policies and procedures, employee training, and monitoring/assessment activities. Grady is also responsible for oversight of Nationwide's enterprise-wide AML/OFAC Compliance solutions and implementation of the new Dodd-Frank Act legislation.

Mr. Williams has a Bachelor's degree in Accounting from Southern Illinois University, Carbondale, and is a Certified Regulatory Compliance Manager (CRCM) and a Certified Internal Auditor (CIA) with over 25 years of regulatory compliance and internal audit management experience in the Public Accounting (KPMG) and the Financial Service arena (Banks, Thrifts, Mortgage Co's., Title Insurance and the Commodity Futures industry). His financial & operational internal audit, regulatory compliance and AML consulting experience include domestic and international assignments in the UK (London), Singapore (Phnom Penh), Cambodia and South Africa (Johannesburg).

Mr. Williams has successfully completed the American Bankers Association (ABA) sponsored National Bank Compliance School and Graduate School of Compliance Risk Management, and the BAI Graduate School of Bank Management – Audit Management (University of Wisconsin).

Mr. Williams currently serves on the board for Community Development Collaborative. In his free time, he enjoys golfing, cooking, and is currently taking private pilot lessons.