

Common Core Parent Night Additional Resources

Websites for Information

www.AchieveTheCore.org

Student Achievement Partners was founded by David Coleman, Susan Pimentel and Jasonimba, lead writers of the Common Core State Standards. It is a non-profit organization with one purpose: to help all students and teachers see their hard work lead to greater student achievement. They provide hundreds of resources for teachers and parents involving Common Core standards.

www.CoreStandards.org

This website hosted by the Common Core State Standards Initiative is a great place for parents to start learning about what the Common Core State Standards are, what they look like in the state of California, and what the major shifts are.

www.cde.ca.gov/re/cc/

This is California's Department of Education website with resources for parents to educate themselves about the California Common Core State Standards. The site includes links to articles and frequently asked questions about the state standards. There is also access to the standards and the new Smarter Balanced assessment system.

www.ColoringColorado.org/common-core/parents/faq/

On this website, you will read the answers to a top ten questions list about Common Core State Standards.

Websites for Parent Support

www.LearnZillion.com

LearnZillion offers free, standards-aligned Math and English Language Arts resources for grades 2-12. Their free collection of math resources includes approximately 400 task-based lesson plans and over 3000 math video lessons for 2nd through 12th grade.

www.KhanAcademy.org

Khan Academy is an educational organization created in 2006. Its website features thousands of educational resources, including over 100,000 practice problems and over 6,000 instructional videos. All resources are available for free. By 2013, the site was used by about 10 million students per month.