

U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services

Immigrant Victims of Human Trafficking and other Crimes

A training for community based organizations, faith based organizations, and social service agencies.

Date: August 4, 2015

Time: 1:00pm

Place: Room 920, JFK Federal Building,
Government Center, Boston, MA

Open to individuals and organizations that work with immigrant victims:

- Immigration service providers
- Attorneys
- Health clinics
- Non- law enforcement personnel
- Congressional staff
- Social workers / case workers
- Domestic violence shelters
- Community-based organizations
- Public services

Immigrant victims of trafficking, domestic abuse or other crimes may be eligible for visas enabling them to stay in the United States.

To qualify for a T-visa or U-visa an immigrant victim may be required to:

- Assist authorities in the investigation or prosecution of the case
- Submit a form signed and certified by a qualified authority

This informational session will include:

- Overview of the types of immigration relief for victims of crimes
- Process updates and helpful filing tips
- Referral and contact information
- Q & A session

Please RSVP to email address:

Boston.CommunityRelations@uscis.dhs.gov
by July 29, 2015

U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services

Immigrant Victims of Human Trafficking and other Crimes

A training for community based organizations, faith based organizations, and social service agencies.

Date: August 6, 2015

Time: 12:00 Noon until 2:30 PM

Place: UMass Center Tower Sq. 1500 Main St.
Springfield, MA

Open to individuals and organizations that work with immigrant victims:

- Immigration service providers
- Attorneys
- Health clinics
- Non- law enforcement personnel
- Congressional staff
- Social workers / case workers
- Domestic violence shelters
- Community-based organizations
- Public services

Immigrant victims of trafficking, domestic abuse or other crimes may be eligible for visas enabling them to stay in the United States.

To qualify for a T-visa or U-visa an immigrant victim may be required to:

- Assist authorities in the investigation or prosecution of the case
- Submit a form signed and certified by a qualified authority

This informational session will include:

- Overview of the types of immigration relief for victims of crimes
- Process updates and helpful filing tips
- Referral and contact information
- Q & A session

If you are interested in participating, please RSVP to boston.communityrelations@uscis.dhs.gov by: July 29, 2015