PRESS RELEASE For Immediate Release

Yarmouth to Address Community's Growing Caregiving Needs and Solutions at Panel Discussion Event April 28.

Event is part of "Caring Across America" book tour for Ai-jen Poo's book, The Age of Dignity

Ai-jen Poo, co-director of Caring Across Generations and a 2014 MacArthur "Genius," discusses "Caring Across America" and her debut book, The Age of Dignity: Preparing for the Elder Boom in a Changing America at a panel discussion on Thursday, April 28, from 4-6:00 p.m. at the Yarmouth Senior Center, 528 Forest Road, West Yarmouth, MA 02673. Ai-jen will be urging all Cape Cod residents to proactively have "Care Conversations" with family members using these two key questions:

- ☐ What joys could getting older and caring for one another bring?
- ☐ What is our family's plan for meeting our future caregiving needs?

Ai-jen, National Domestic Workers Alliance and Caring Across Generations mobilize all to ask elected officials and candidates for office to publicly state their responses to this key question:

What will you do to support Cape Cod's caregiving needs?

WHAT: Discussion: The Age of Dignity – Caregiving in a Changing World

WHEN: Thursday, April 28, 2016
