

6th Grade Volunteer Assistant Instructor

Ocean Science Explorers Program

Ocean Discovery Institute is an award-winning science education organization that works with San Diego's most underserved elementary, middle, and high school students to promote science and environmental stewardship.

Ocean Science Explorers (OSE) is a school and field-based educational initiative that provides early and continued exposure to ocean science. Students and teachers participate in Ocean Science Explorers from the third through sixth grades.

Position Overview:

- Assist with hands-on science lessons for underserved youth
- Assist with outdoor field experiences at the Birch Aquarium and Torrey Pines |
- Lessons focused on Earth Science (geology, climate change, renewable energy)

Position Commitment:

- One weekday morning per week (approx. 5 hours) January through May
- Attend training:
 - Wednesday, April 13, 2016 3pm- 7pm

Position Benefits:

- Rewarding experience working with underserved youth
- Gain science communication skills
- Gain teaching experience
- Team appreciation event

Position Requirements:

- Enthusiasm for working with youth from diverse backgrounds
- Prompt and dependable
- Must provide own transportation

To apply, contact:

Joel Barkan, School-based Initiative Coordinator

Cell: (207) 232-0452

Office: (858) 488-3849

Email: jbarkan@oceandi.org

