

ERP at Bank Street Presents....

The ERP Community of Safe and Sound Schools
Conference Day
December 7th, 2015 at Bank Street College
610 West 112th St, N.Y. N.Y 10025
9:30 a.m.-4:00 p.m.

(Preliminary Agenda)

Morning Agenda

Keynote Speaker, Lesley Koplow

Staying Sane in the Classroom :

The Art and Science of Being With Children Every Day

A.M. Break Out Sessions (Choose One)

1. When Trauma Comes to School: What Helps and What Hurts
2. Literacy as “Good Mirror” for Social and Emotional Growth
3. The Power of Transitional Objects in the Classroom: Using Teddy Bears to Promote Empathy for Self and Others
4. Sharing Reflective Techniques: Language, Bears, Books, and Curriculum ( Designed for the Community of ERP Experienced Schools)
5. Essentials of Emotionally Responsive Practice
( Designed for the Community of Schools New to ERP)
6. Building a Safe and Sound School Community: Informing Interactions, Routines and Environment with ERP

P.M. Break Out Sessions (Choose One)

1. When Trauma Comes to School: What Helps and What Hurts
2. Literacy as “Good Mirror” for Social and Emotional Growth
3. The Power of Transitional Objects in the Classroom:
Using Teddy Bears to Promote Empathy for Self and Others
4. Sharing Reflective Techniques: Bears, Books, and Curriculum
( Designed for ERP Experienced Teachers)
5. Essentials of Emotionally Responsive Practice
(Especially designed for schools new to ERP)
6. Building a Safe and Sound School Community: Informing Interactions, Routines and Environment with ERP

Closing Statements: A Promise for Our Children and Ourselves: An Emotionally Responsive Community of Practice