

Video submission of your riding ability has become a key component in the college acceptance and scholarship package. The College Prep Invitational is happy to announce a partnership with Robert Jordan and 2 exclusive packages that are only available to CPI Riders.

Robert Jordan, of Sidelines TV, Equestrian Clinics and Equestrian Clinics TV, has filmed educational clinics with the likes of George Morris, Anne Kursinski, Archie Cox, Frank Madden, Debbie Stephens, Louise Serio, Nona Garson, Steve Lengyel, Meredith Michaels Beerbaum among many others and has interviewed every top level rider and trainer in the world.

Robert has put together two package options for the College Prep Invitational Riders, to offer them the fantastic opportunity of highlighting their performance and academic achievements:

Package A - $95.00

Record a video of your performance at the CPI in Wellington of your over fences class presented with a professional opening and closing segment verifying that this is from the CPI. Video includes unlimited digital access to your video including copying and posting to social media.

Package B - $159.00

Record your classes and include a 3- 5 minute for interview of you for Sidelines TV about any riding experiences and your aspirations for the future. This submission to colleges along with your application helps recruiters and admission officers better understand you as a prospective student and rider. Video and interview includes unlimited digital access to your video including copying and posting to social media. You have the choice to have the video posted to Sidelines TV and Sidelines Digital Magazine or keep it private for your own use.
