SOCIAL MEDIA TOOLKIT: The 2015 Mandela Washington Fellowship

The Presidential Precinct is a consortium among two of America's premier universities, the University of Virginia and William & Mary; William Short's Morven, and the home of three Founding Fathers: Thomas Jefferson's Monticello, James Madison's Montpelier, and James Monroe's Ash-Lawn Highland. The Presidential Precinct aims to empower the next generation of influential leaders through education, collaboration, and digital networking.

The Mandela Washington Fellowship, the flagship program of President Obama's Young African Leaders Initiative (YALI), empowers young African leaders through academic coursework, leadership training, mentoring, networking, professional opportunities, and support for activities in their communities. Fellows are young leaders from Sub-Saharan Africa who have a proven record of accomplishment in promoting innovation and positive change in their organizations, institutions, or communities. The cohort of Fellows hosted by Presidential Precinct is part of a larger group of 500 Mandela Washington Fellows being hosted across the United States each year.
