

Voting Procedure for
I'll Be the Judge!

The first ever exhibition where the selections and awards for a juried exhibition will be made by you and your peers!

- Voting will take place: 12pm - 5pm on Wednesday May 13, 2015 and 10am - 5pm on Thursday, May 14
- Each participating artist who submits artwork may visit the Art Center on the appointed days to receive a ballot. Only one ballot per artist.
- Artists must show the pink copy of their entry forms to receive a ballot sheet and be eligible to vote.
- Each submitted artwork will be numbered - no yellow slips identifying the artist will be visible- and displayed just as a juror would see them.
- The ballot will have a numerical list of entered pieces, with a check box next to each number. You select the pieces you think should be included and leave the others blank (yes, you can select your own!)
- At the end of the voting period, all ballots will be tallied to determine inclusion. The top 140 pieces (that is the number we can accommodate in gallery 4) will be selected to remain in the show.
- The artwork with the most votes will get first place, then second, third, two merit awards and 12 honorable mentions.
