

CLEP Testing Opportunity

What? The College-Level Examination Program (CLEP) allows students to receive college credit for what they already know.

Who? AP Students returning to an Orange County school in Fall 2016, who tested in May 2016 and received a 2* on one of the following AP exams:

AP English Language & Composition

AP Psychology

*AP U.S. History—students receiving a 3 may also attend and take the test

AP Spanish Language & Culture—There is no CLEP Prep for this exam. Students will only need to attend on Thursday, July 28th for testing.

When? July 25-28, 2016 — There will be three days of preparation for the CLEP Test, July 25-27 from 8:00 AM—12:00 PM. The CLEP Test will be given on Thursday, July 28, 2016. Students must attend all three days of prep in order to take the test on Thursday. (If you are registering for the Spanish Language test, you do NOT need to attend July 25-27. AP Spanish Language students need only attend on July 28 for testing.)

Where? Boone High School, Colonial High School, or Olympia High School,

How much? FREE! This is a $116 value!

How? Reserve your testing seat by going to one of the websites below and completing the July 2016 CLEP Prep Registration document.

REGISTRATION WEBSITE for English Language, Psychology and U.S. History	http://goo.gl/forms/HQJCEJg13D
REGISTRATION WEBSITE for Spanish Language	http://goo.gl/forms/5GYdkzPwAl

Seats are limited so register early. Deadline to reserve your seat is July 22, or until all seats have been reserved.

CLEP

Please visit the CLEP website for more information regarding CLEP exams.

<http://clep.collegeboard.org>

If you have questions concerning CLEP testing, please contact:

Robin Simmons
robin.simmons@ocps.net

Marjorie Ceballos
Marjorie.cebcallos@ocps.net

