

Second Printing
The Eucharist: A History for Life-long and New Episcopalians

Parishioners are saying encouraging things about the book:

John's book is very well-written and deepened not only my understanding of the Eucharist, but also the circumstances leading to the Reformation.

— Dr. Tom Hyers

John's book is a must read for anyone who is the least bit curious about why we Episcopalians do what we do in the eucharistic liturgy. It is filled with thoughtful insight and research into the history and meaning of the celebration of the offering made by Jesus on our behalf and the echo of the same as we offer back to God "our selves, our souls and bodies" at the Lord's table. This book holds a permanent place on my reference shelf.

— Sam Sked

Every parishioner should read John's book. I want to buy more copies to give to family and friends.

— Gene Arnold

If you want to order one or more books for $19.95 each, then e-mail John as soon as possible at jrt Tyler23@sbcglobal.net and tell him your name and the number of books that you want to order at $19.95 each.

If respondents order enough books by May 23 to allow a printing, then John will arrange for a second printing. Once John receives the books, he will post in church e-letters the Sunday dates and times that he will have the books available for your payment and pick up in the Great Hall. John will accept checks made out to John R. Tyler in the amount of $19.95, and will also accept credit cards. Books will be available only for those who have placed orders as indicated above. (If an insufficient number of books is ordered as of May 23 to allow a second printing, then John will notify those who have placed orders.)

John is pleased that parishioners bought the entire first printing and have had said such encouraging things about the book. If you missed the first opportunity to get a copy, then take advantage of this second opportunity.
