

A Third Way: Settlers and Palestinians as Neighbors

TUESDAY, APRIL 19
7:00 PM

The Community House in Birmingham
380 S. Bates St, Birmingham, MI

Rabbi Menachem Froman

*Join us for a screening and discussion of
"A Third Way: Settlers and Palestinians as Neighbors."*

This film documents the unique Rabbi Menachem Froman, known as the Israeli settler rabbi for peace, and the work of his protégés. The film tells the gripping story of the power of building intercultural and interfaith trust on a grassroots level, and shows how this trust-building can be a foundation for new possibilities of political solutions and peace. After the film Rabbi Mark Miller and Howard Lupovitch will lead a discussion with the film's director and co-producer, Harvey Stein.

Presented in partnership with Cohn-Haddow Center for Judaic Studies at Wayne State University and the Race Relations and Diversity Task Force of The Community House in Birmingham.

Questions?

Contact Rachel Rudman rrudman@tbeonline.org or 248.851.1100.

Sponsored by:

TEMPLE
BETH EL

Cohn-Haddow
Center for Judaic Studies

Co-Sponsoring:

InterFaith Leadership COUNCIL of Metropolitan Detroit