

Open Gate: Walls Farm Day

Using Grazing Systems to Produce Healthy Food and Ecosystems

grow

share

prosper

Our Walls Farm Day is part of HMI's Open Gate Learning Series. Open Gates are peer-to-peer action-based learning days with short presentations and small group exercises geared for participants to share discoveries and management techniques with guidance from experienced facilitators and producers.

Whether you are a consumer interested in healthy food, someone who cares about a healthy environment in your community, an agricultural producer, land steward, local agency representative, or just interested in healthy land, healthy wildlife, healthy watersheds, and healthy food, this is a day for you.

Tuesday, July 26, 2016

What to Expect

- Meet the Walls, an award-winning family who raises great beef while stewarding their land for the benefit of the entire community
- Discover how to keep our water clean and hold more carbon in the soil
- Identify indicators of good soil and watershed health
- Learn how to make decisions towards a triple bottom line
- Practice looking for signs of healthy land and watersheds
- Discuss soil health benefits through managed grazing
- Practice assessing forage on the land
- Have a chance to ask producers who have practiced these techniques
- Hear how Holistic Management enables producers to better manage risk, make better decisions and enjoy the benefits of regenerative agriculture.

Presenters

- Carolyn & Trent Walls, Walls Farm
- Kylie McRae, Ducks Unlimited Canada
- Blain Hjertaas, Holistic Management Certified Educator
