

Dr. Jun Zhao, Division Chair, College of Business, Governors State University

Dr. Jun Zhao is a Professor of Management at the College of Business, Governors State University. She received her MBA and DBA degrees from Southern Illinois University at Carbondale, and a Bachelor of Engineering degree from Shanghai Jiaotong University, China. She had teaching positions at Western Illinois University, Roosevelt University, and California State University Channel Islands.

Dr. Zhao's research interests include corporate restructuring, organizational downsizing, psychological contract, and cross-cultural management studies. She has published with Academy of Management Review, Management Research Review, China Management Studies, and Advances in Competitiveness Research. She has presented papers at various regional, national, and international conferences.

Dr. Zhao has served as the chair of the Management, Marketing, and Public Administration division since 2012.