

Dear Colleagues,

William Burke, Administrative Director for The John Randolph Haynes and Dora Haynes Foundation will be on campus on Friday, October 16 to discuss the Foundation's grant opportunities.

Please share this opportunity with your faculty and colleagues. The presentation is open to faculty and doctoral candidates, however space is limited so please RSVP by emailing Lis Kealy at ekealy@support.ucla.edu.

The John Randolph Haynes and Dora Haynes Foundation is a leading supporter of social science research for Los Angeles, and is the oldest private foundation in the city. The foundation seeks to fund projects that study and research underlying causes of social problems in Los Angeles and to recommend ways of addressing them. Over the years, the Foundation has funded hundreds of important urban studies in the areas of education, transportation, local government, elections, public safety, demographics, public personal services and natural resources.

The Foundation provides grants that support:

- Original social science research into policy issues of the Los Angeles region
- Research into the history of Southern California
- Archival and cataloging projects important to Los Angeles
- Dissertation fellowships at research universities in the five-county Southern California region
- Faculty fellowships at universities and four-year colleges in the five-county Southern California region

Upcoming grant deadlines are:

November 3, 2015 – Major Research Grants (4 deadlines annually)

December 10, 2015 – Faculty Fellowships (1 deadline per year)

January 5, 2016 – Archive Grants (1 deadline per year)

February 17, 2016 – Haynes Lindley Doctoral Dissertation Fellowships (1 deadline per year)

More information on the grant programs mentioned above can be found at the Haynes Foundation's website, <http://www.haynesfoundation.org/program/index.asp>
