truth we take so well and often take for granted. All the while, however, a Cristo sea la Gloria. Amén.

The second Saturday of the month of January we had our first youth group in el Buen Pastor! Praise the Lord! Nine youth were present and we can certainly count on more in the future.

We had a great day of manzanas con manzanas (apples to apples, which amazingly no one had played) guitar classes and a devotion on the Ten Commandments.

If a Church is to grow, if visiting families are going to incorporate into generation members, there has to be something for the children of those families to be attracted. We already know our Lutheran Confessions are a true exposition of the Bible. But the people outside the local Lutheran neighborhood congregation don't know that. We need to pull them in, through active congregations to be able to share with them the
