*APR is the Annual Percentage Rate. There is a one-time $25 loan processing fee. Loan example: $10,000 at 5.99% for 60 monthly payments of approximately $193.28 each with a corresponding APR of 6.09%.

 APR is the Annual Percentage Rate. Rate will adjust monthly based on Prime Rate published in The Wall Street Journal plus a margin based on underwriting criteria. $50 LOC set up fee paid at origination. $50 annual renewal fee for ongoing access to the Line of Credit. Line of Credit payment example: With an outstanding balance of $10,000, the minimum payment would be $175.00. As a variable rate loan product, rate and payment is subject to increase after consummation.

Rate referenced above is the lowest rate possible for qualified borrowers and is based on underwriting criteria. All loans are subject to approval. Additional terms and conditions may apply.
