Positions at Ohio University, Athens, OH

Assistant Professor of Social Work

Position Description: This is a nine-month tenure track position that reports to the Chair of the Department. The successful candidate will be responsible for teaching undergraduate and/or graduate courses and provide national leadership in interdisciplinary programs in child and family studies and social work with a particular emphasis on social work practice. The candidate will advise both undergraduate and graduate students, assist in placement and supervision of interns, conduct research studies and secure internal and external funding on rural social work issues, and serve on School, College, and University committees. Teaching and research interests should be related to rural social work issues, substance abuse, veterans issues and child welfare. The social work programs are accredited by Council on Social Work Education (CSWE).

Qualifications:
• Earned doctorate in social work
• Must be a licensed social worker
• Evidence of successful college/university teaching
• Commitment to active e-learning and use of technology in the learning process with distance learning and online delivery preferred
• Ability to engage in research with potential for successful extramural funding especially in rural social work issues.
• Strong and clear evidence of research and scholarly activity accomplishment in area related to rural social work issues.
• Commitment to quality undergraduate and graduate education.
• Commitment to diversity
• Involvement in professional organizations

Starting Date: August 15, 2013

Applications and Inquiries: Completed online applications include current curriculum vitae/resume, cover letter describing how qualifications and accomplishments fit the requirements of the position, and names, titles, addresses, e-mail addresses, and telephone numbers of three current professional references. Review of completed applications will begin July 15, 2013, and will continue until filled. Questions concerning the position or application process should be directed to Dr. Warren Galbreath, telephone: (740)699-2341 or e-mail: galbreat@ohio.edu

Ohio University is committed to creating a respectful and inclusive educational and workplace environment. Ohio University is an equal access/equal opportunity and affirmative action employer with a strong commitment to building and maintaining a diverse workforce. Women, persons of color, persons with disabilities, and veterans are encouraged to apply.

To apply and further information, please visit: http://www.ohiouniversityjobs.com/postings/6486
#2 Assistant/Associate/Full Professor for Social Work

Ohio University is hiring an Assistant/Associate/Full Professor of Social Work depending upon qualifications and serve as coordinator for social work programs.

Applications and Inquiries: Completed online applications include current curriculum vitae/resume, cover letter describing how qualifications and accomplishments fit the requirements of the position, and names, titles, addresses, e-mail addresses, and telephone numbers of three current professional references. Questions concerning the position or application process should be directed to Dr. Warren Galbreath (740)699-2341. to apply, please visit http://www.ohiouniversityjobs.com/postings/4000

Minimum Qualifications:
* Earned doctorate degree in Social Work
* Experience with leadership position in a Social Work program
* Preferred experience with the Council on Social Work Education
* Evidence of successful college/university teaching experience
* Experience in teaching undergraduate and graduate courses with a focus on macro practice

The position will remain open until filled. For full consideration, please apply by November 1, 2013.

Ohio University is committed to creating a respectful and inclusive educational and workplace environment. Ohio University is an equal access/equal opportunity and affirmative action employer with a strong commitment to building and maintaining a diverse workforce. Women, persons of color, persons with disabilities, and veterans are encouraged to apply.

To apply and further information, please visit: http://www.ohiouniversityjobs.com/postings/6487

#3 Lecturer of Social Work

Position Description: This is a nine-month non-tenure track position that reports to the Chair of the Department. The successful candidate will be responsible for teaching undergraduate and/or graduate courses. The candidate will advise both undergraduate and graduate students, assist in placement and supervision of interns and serve on School, College, and University committees. Teaching will be related to rural social work issues, substance abuse, veterans issues and child welfare. The social work programs are accredited by Council on Social Work Education (CSWE).

Qualifications:
* Must be a licensed social worker
* Evidence of successful college/university teaching
* Commitment to active e-learning and use of technology in the learning process with distance learning and online delivery preferred
• Commitment to quality undergraduate and graduate education.
• Commitment to diversity
• Involvement in professional organizations

Starting Date: August 15, 2013

Applications and Inquiries: Completed online applications include current curriculum vitae/resume, cover letter describing how qualifications and accomplishments fit the requirements of the position, and names, titles, addresses, e-mail addresses, and telephone numbers of three current professional references. Review of completed applications will begin July 15, 2013, and will continue until filled. Questions concerning the position or application process should be directed to Dr. Warren Galbreath, telephone: (740)699-2341 or e-mail: galbreat@ohio.edu

Ohio University is committed to creating a respectful and inclusive educational and workplace environment. Ohio University is an equal access/equal opportunity and affirmative action employer with a strong commitment to building and maintaining a diverse workforce. Women, persons of color, persons with disabilities, and veterans are encouraged to apply.

To apply and further information, please visit: http://www.ohiouniversityjobs.com/postings/6492