

COMING HOME

April 21, 2016 | 9:30 am - 1:30 pm

Carolina Village, Hendersonville

Box Lunch Provided

Attendees Will:

- Understand the role of the Local Contact Agency and Money Follows the Person in helping people transition from institutions into the community
- Learn about housing resources that are available for people who are transitioning into community living.
- Identify strategies to overcoming housing barriers.
- Recognize the types of wrap-around services required for those who transition.

Who Should Come:

- Professionals serving older adults and people with disabilities
- Long term care providers, personal and professional caregivers in Buncombe, Madison, Henderson or Transylvania Counties

Registration:

- Visit www.landofsky.org for registration or for more information contact Rebecca Chaplin at rebecca@landofsky.org

