The screenshot shows the 'Login Wizard' interface for the HPNA Member Portal. The header includes the HPNA logo and the text 'Advancing Expert Care HPNA • HPNF • HPCC'. The date 'Thursday, January 08, 2015' is displayed in the top right. The main content area is titled 'Login Wizard' and contains a list of fields: 'HPNA Member Number', 'HPCC Certification Number', 'Email Address', 'Phone Number', and 'Password'. A red text prompt above the fields states 'Enter any 2 of the following values'. Below the fields are 'Login' and 'Forgot my info' buttons. A yellow callout box with a large arrow points to the fields, containing the text: 'Two fields must be completed and entries must match our database.'

The screenshot shows the HPNA (Hospice & Palliative Nurses Association) website. The main navigation bar includes links for HOME, COMMUNITIES, BLOGS, FORUMS, FILES, MEMBERS, and SURVEYS/POLLS. A 'More Options' button is also present. The 'Heart Failure SIG' section is highlighted, describing it as a Special Interest Group for HPNA members interested in Heart Failure. To the right of this section are buttons for Blogs, Forums, and Files. Below the SIG description, there is a 'Community Membership' section with a 'Request to Join' button. A large blue arrow with yellow text points to this button, stating: 'Click on the 'Request To Join' button from the SIG Community Page'. The bottom of the page shows a 'Latest Files' section with 'No Posts' and a 'Community Members' section with a grid of member photos.
