

The UPHA Open Gate Learning Center

at the
UPHA American Royal National Championship

November 10-14, 2015

Application for Students Grades 5-12

The goal of the Open Gate Learning Center is to help students to complete assignments required by their teachers while absent from school. Basic support such as clarification of assignments, proofreading work, proctoring tests and answering a student's questions are provided. The Center is also able to receive assignments, Powerpoint notes, outlines, etc. from teachers throughout the horse show.

*This program is offered at no charge to all junior members of UPHA. See terms and conditions.
