

Identifying & Interpreting Roman Coins

With Andrew Woods, Curator of Numismatics, York Museums Trust

Join us for a FREE workshop & learn the basics of identifying, documenting and interpreting Roman coins within a museum environment.

Monday 9 November
10.15am - 3.30pm

Weston Park
MuseumSheffield

This workshop will provide an introduction to Roman coinage in museums. The workshop is aimed at curators, volunteers or archaeologists who work with Roman coinage or are planning to do so. Prior experience is not required as the session will provide a basic background. The workshop will be hands-on with participants working with coins from York Museums Trust's collection.

The session will cover:

- Identifying coins
- Appropriate handling
- Interpretation possibilities
- Practicalities of using coins
- Finding further information

Monday 9 November,
10.15am - 3.30pm
FREE (Booking is essential)

Lunch not provided

For more information and to book,
please contact Lucy Creighton:

0114 278 2626

lucy.creighton@museums-sheffield.org.uk

Weston Park Museum
Western Bank
Sheffield
S10 2TP

In partnership with York Museums Trust

museums-sheffield.org.uk

Image © The Portable Antiquities Scheme