

The Sukkah, a symbol of temporary housing, is being used to bring focus to affordable housing issues in our own community. Let's celebrate Sukkot unconventionally this year while also raising awareness of the need for more affordable housing in Toronto.

Date: Friday September 25th to Sunday September 27th.

Place: Nathan Phillips Square, 100 Queen Street West, Toronto, ON

Awards Ceremony: 12:30pm, Friday September 25th.

Active Programming Day including a walking tour of The Ward, an Urban Agriculture display by Shores, & live music on Sunday September 27th.

Event closes at 4:00pm on Sunday September 27th.

Call 416 932 1212 or visit www.sukkahville.com for more information