

10 Things You Don't Know About Us: Administrative Coordinators

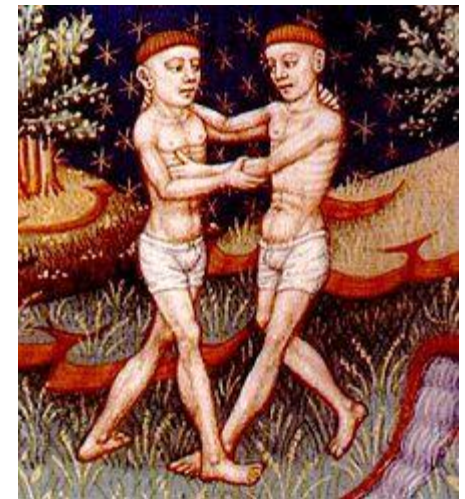

Georgie Dawson, Ruth Enlow Library of Garrett County

1. In August 2015, I will have worked at Ruth Enlow Library for 31 years. My first position at the Library was as Page, where I worked all the evenings and weekends, and my hourly wage was $3.85.
2. I love Santas and I am always on the lookout for a different one to add to my collection.
3. Jiff peanut butter is a food necessity. I always have a jar and a spoon with me when I travel and there is always a jar in my office.
4. I have a 10-year-old granddaughter, Promise, who is my sunshine. There is no one like her!
5. I am committed to volunteering my time to a few important causes, such as Garrett County Relay For Life, Cindy's Fund, GranFondo and the Savageman event, who all raise funds for cancer patient services and cancer research. I also volunteered for the Deep Creek 2014 ICF World Championships Canoe Slalom event. FUN!
6. I LOVE to travel! I love road trips, but one of my favorite places to travel to is the Dominican Republic. I dream about living there, at least part-time, some day.
7. At the age of 4½, I, along with several family members, were held hostage for about 20 hours by four escaped convicts.
8. I enjoy Jazzercising.
9. I was born in Baltimore.
10. I was struck by lightning when I was 15.

Charlotte Seibert, Washington County Free Library

1. I used to own a trucking company.
2. I don't like pickles. Eat one gherkin once a year as a 'spring tonic.'
3. I owned a Street Rod for several years and went to car shows all 'round the region.
4. I am the eldest of five children.
5. I am not a good swimmer and I nearly failed gym in high school in Florida where swimming is required.
6. My nickname is Charli because the airbrush artist in Daytona couldn't fit Charlotte on the front of a t-shirt without starting on the front, going under the left arm, and onto the back – so he shortened it.
7. I am a Gemini through and through.
8. My favorite color is green. No, yellow. No, blue. But I really like green. Ahem, I am drawn to soft yellows. Pastels! My favorite color is pastels!
9. My word. Coming up with 10 Things is difficult.
10. When I retire I want to open a Teahouse. Mary Baykan calls this my "Walter Mitty" moment.

Symbolic representation of Gemini

Jennifer Spriggs, Allegany County Library System

1. I have a 6 year old son named Alex and a 3 year old daughter named Amelia.
2. I went to library school at Louisiana State University.
3. I lived in Germany as an exchange student during my senior year of high school.
4. I worked for WMRL from 2006-2009.
5. I have visited all fifty states except for North Dakota.
6. My favorite authors are Agatha Christie and Jane Austen.
7. I once held a baby lion in South Africa.
8. I love to work-out.
9. I was born near Cincinnati, OH.
10. I volunteered at my elementary school library, my middle school library, my high school library, and worked at a library/archives during both my undergrad and graduate studies.