Boundary Training will be offered three times in 2016 through the Lehigh Presbytery.

Led by:

Stephen R. Treat, DMin, LMFT.
Dr. Treat is a Staff Therapist for the Council for Relationships, University City and Spring House and CEO Emeritus. He is a licensed marriage and family therapist who works with individuals, couples, and families to foster an understanding of how family systems work and how they improve. Additionally, he speaks and consults with universities, schools, religious organizations and non-profits. An in-demand speaker, Dr. Treat has been featured on numerous television and radio programs, and is often quoted for newspaper and magazine articles. He has co-authored two books.

This training is open to anyone who requires boundary training, especially those who work with children.
