CERRO GORDO

BULL'S EYE

SEE MAPS

BULL'S EYE (Ojo de Buey) 2-3 Hour Hike and Swim Adventure

- Right at the mouth of the La Plata river, where it meets the ocean, is where you'll find the Ojo de Buey.
- Over time, rain, wind and waves have sculpted the shape of a bull's head on this piece of rocky coast in Dorado.
- This natural oddity has been a special place for hundreds, or even thousands, of years, and is a favorite for photographers.
- If you want to have a picnic lunch stop, there are some seaside picnic tables you can use.

- (See map overleaf) Take Road 693 to Road 698 to Calle 13. Continue to the end of the road, where you'll see an archway with the beach beyond.
- You can park by the arch and walk the rest of the way (take your valuables with you). Walk down the beach (around the little bay) and follow the trail up and to the left. Walk up the short trail, and you'll see the "bull" rock closer to the water.
- If you're feeling adventurous, you can drive through the arch, onto the beach and as far as you feel comfortable driving on sand. There is a small blacktop parking area at about the 1/2-way point.
- The picnic tables are down the trail near the "bull's head".

CERRO GORDO BEACH, HIKE & BIKE TRAILS 3-4 Hour Hike and Swim Adventure

- A beach lover's playground, it also offers a gorgeous trail great for walking and mountain biking.
- The beach palm branches across the four mile trail, and dodging coconuts, are just fun. The scenery is stunning.
- The best part is the view of the Atlantic Ocean. You can watch and hear the waves hitting the rocks.
- End the hike or bike ride with a cool dip at the beach
- For BIKE RENTALS, contact our Guest Services Manager Alex Espin at 787-516-8019.
- Cerro Gordo Beach is also a good location for snorkeling.
