Calling all Seafarers

Have you experienced a warm welcome at a seafarers' centre or club? Do they give you free or cheap access to the internet and phones?

Is your shipping company giving support to your family while you're away? Do they provide you with email at sea?

Do the ports you visit provide transport to seafarers' centres and other facilities? Do they allow welfare workers to visit your ship?

If so, we want to hear from you! We want you to nominate them for an award. The International Committee on Seafarers' Welfare (ICSW) has launched the International Seafarers' Welfare Awards 2011 to recognise excellence in the provision of welfare services and facilities to seafarers. We hope these awards will encourage others to provide better welfare facilities and improve their services to seafarers.

We want you to nominate the organisation, company, or port who has made an extra effort to look after your welfare/wellbeing. If you have experienced friendly service, a warm welcome, or helpful staff we want to hear about it.

You can nominate one or more of the following:

- seafarers' centre or club of the year
- port of the year
- shipping company of the year

How do I nominate?

There are two ways to nominate – on our website or by email.

Go to www.seafarerswelfareawards.org and fill in the simple form giving your details, the name of the organisation, company, or port you wish to nominate and, briefly, your reasons for nominating.

Alternatively you can send a short email to awards@icsw.org.uk

Nominations close 9th September 2011
