Making the Most of Teaching Assistant and Aide Support in the Classroom

Are you a teacher working with 1:1 teaching assistants (TA's), shared aides, and/or classroom aides and want to learn ways to support and manage all the adults in your classroom? Are you a parent of a child who is supported by a full-time or part-time TA/aide and interested in discussing the best ways to have your child's needs met? Are you a TA/aide looking for strategies for working with the student or students you are assigned to support? If you answered yes to any of these questions, please come to this interactive, hands-on workshop where you will learn strategies and tools for incorporating paraprofessionals (TA's/aides) into the classroom.

Topics addressed will include: facilitation of social skills, academic support strategies, use of non-verbal prompts, team communication, and effective ways to fade support.
