BOYS HOOPS RECAP
By Stephen Black

Mann ejected, suspended for 2 games

No. 1 Milton destroyed yet another victim Saturday in an 85-58 demolition of North Gwinnett at West Georgia. Even Nolte led Milton with 30 points on 9-of-11 shooting. But it was not all good news for the Eagles, who lost starting point guard Charles Mann for the next two games after he was ejected for scoring two technical fouls. The suspension effectively ends Mann's season. The senior has signed to play hoops at UGA next year. ... Also in Class AAAAA, Alpharetta and Harrison clinched the first semifinals appearances in school history. And each Final Four berth came as a surprise as both programs entered the state tourney as No. 3 seeds. ... Meanwhile, according to the Savannah Morning News, the Savannah Blue Jackets earned their fifth semifinals appearance in 16 years under coach Tim Jordan with a 59-43 upset of No. 2 North Cobb. Kavan Freeman led the Blue Jackets with 14 points. ... In Dalton, Class AAA No. 1 and defending champ Columbia routed No. 2 Carrollton 51-30 to earn a trip to the program's seventh straight final four according to the Georgia Basketball Project (GHSBP.com). Jarmal Reid led a balanced effort by the Eagles with 11 points. ... Also in AAA, Washington upset No. 4 Alatoona 59-56 in overtime at Dalton. It is the Bulldogs' first semifinals appearance since 1987. ... Barry Mays led No. 3 Drew with 18 points to lead the Titans to their second win of the season over Region 4-rival Henry County. ... In a major upset, Class AA No. 1 GAC was eliminated by No. 6 Manchester 45-46 in Dalton. Saquan Terry, who finished with 12, put the Blue Devils up by four with 23 seconds left with a lay-in. Zay Echolia led Manchester with 14 points, 12 of them on three-pointers. ... Class AA No. 10 Laney jumped out to a 34-22 halftime lead over No. 4 Morgan County, then coasted to a 71-59 win. Shaquille Cook led the Wildcats with 26 points, while freshman Tookie Brown had 18 for the Bulldogs. ... In an upset, defending Class A champion Wilkinson County was knocked off by No. 4 Athens Christian 61-58 in Marietta. The Eagles outscored the defending champs 21-14 in the final period. ... Class A Whitefield Academy had few problems with No. 10 Aquinas, defeating the Fighting Irish 76-64 in Marietta.
