Leadership Vicksburg is committed to providing leaders with a deeper understanding of the critical issues affecting Vicksburg and Warren County.

Participants will complete an intense training retreat, eight Business and Community Days, and a Community project.

The Overnight retreat blends both indoor and outdoor activities that focus on the development of team building, leadership, organization, collaboration, and communication skills - during which individuals will be building significant relationships that will be useful in their professional, civic, and personal endeavors.

Over the next eight months, program participants will have the opportunity to meet and interact with a broad range of community and business leaders. This year's training retreat will be at Warner-Tully YMCA Camp in Port Gibson, MS.
