Every child deserves the best start in a warm, dry, secure home

Dunedin CPAG warmly invites you to attend a talk on:

Healthy and affordable housing: local and national issues.

Where: Carisbrook Primary School Hall, 217
South Rd., Caversham.

(Come in the main archway gates and veer left to the hall)

When: Friday 16 October 1.30- 3.00pm

This community event is for anyone with an interest in housing and poverty. Come along and learn about the links between poverty, housing, health and fuel, and hear about solutions.

Featuring - the beautiful artwork of the children of Carisbrook School on the theme of: 'What makes a good house?'

Speakers:

Fatima McKague - PhD candidate, Centre for Sustainability, University of Otago - "Voices of the fuel poor: the cold truth - Understanding energy hardship in New Zealand"

Nicola Liebergreen - Assistant Research Fellow, University of Otago - "Out in the cold"

Dunedin Mayor Dave Cull - the Cosy Homes Project

All Welcome, Nau Mai Haere Mai.
