Call for Reviewers

The Journal of the Society for Social Work and Research (JSSWR), the official peer-reviewed journal of the Society for Social Work and Research, is seeking applicants interested in serving as peer reviewers.

Ensuring JSSWR’s continuing tradition as a social work journal of the highest quality depends on reviewers with exceptional expertise and an ability to be objective, fair, and insightful in their evaluation of manuscripts. The charge of reviewers is to evaluate the quality, relevance, and merit of submitted papers. Comments should be as complete and detailed as possible and contain clear opinions about strengths, weaknesses, relevance, and importance to the field. Reviewers should consider themselves as mentors to the authors, and reviewers are expected to offer specific constructive comments and suggestions that are intended to enhance the manuscript.

Reviewers may be requested to review manuscripts up to six times a year. Reviewers who consistently exhibit excellent reviews and respond promptly to the editorial requests are considered for invitation to the Editorial Review Board.

Professional Requirements

- Possess a very strong command of the English language
- Have published at least five peer-reviewed publications (author or co-author)
- Provide an electronic current curriculum vitae

Editorial Requirements

- Agree to return reviews of manuscripts in a timely manner;
- Agree not to distribute the manuscript or to disclose information within the manuscript;
- Agree to review the first revision of a manuscript for which he/she provided the initial review;
- Agree to be released as a reviewer after three refusals to review and/or late reviews;
- Agree to be rated as a reviewer; such ratings will affect future selection to review.
