Social Work Colleagues –
The Public Health Social Work Section of the American Public Health Association (APHA) invites you to submit abstracts for the 2014 Annual Conference in New Orleans, Louisiana to be held on November 15-19, 2014. http://www.apha.org/meetings/AnnualMeeting/

The Deadline for Abstract Submissions is Feb 11, 2014.

Public Health Social Work Special Focus Areas include (but are not limited to):

- Aging in Place - Developing Healthy Aging Across the Life Span;
- Community Organization and Mobilization – Recovering from Disaster;
- Disability; Health Disparities/Equity;
- Housing as Health: Homelessness;
- Integrated Behavioral Health and the Affordable Care Act;
- Interprofessional Approaches and Public Health Social Work;
- Migration and Transition;
- Neighborhood Context: Its influence on Health;
- Rural Health: Distance and Access;
- Social Work Leadership in Prevention;
- Social Work Response to Community Trauma;
- Space and Place – Health and Neighborhoods, GIS Systems;
- Veterans-Access to Services

To Submit an Abstract, Please Click on One of The Links below Where You will Find All Necessary Submission Guidelines:

- Public Health Social Work Section: Poster, Oral or Symposium Sessions: https://apha.confex.com/apha/142am/sw.htm
- Full or half-day APHA Learning Institute – submit directly to APHA: https://apha.confex.com/apha/142am/cei.htm
- All APHA Sections: https://apha.confex.com/apha/142am/oasys.epl

If you have questions about the Public Health Social Work Section call for abstracts, please contact Kim Jaffee and Abby Ross, Program Planners, at aphapublichealthsocialwork@gmail.com. We hope to see you in New Orleans this November!