

Khadija Hansia bio

Khadija is a Daily Operations Supervisor, Volunteer Director and Founder of the Islamic Sunday School at the Islamic Center of Mill Valley. She joined the Marin Interfaith board of directors in 2014 and has been passionate about interfaith advocacy and communication. Khadija does marketing for NanaWall Systems and spends 3 nights every week volunteering with different organizations such as Bridge the Gap, 10,000 Degrees and American Red Cross. She loves to bake, throw events, travel the world and hang out with her three cats, Bunny, Brownie and Coconut. She is a Bay Area native, born in San Francisco, California.

Stephanie Humphrey bio

Stephanie Humphrey is a congregant of Unity in Marin, a new thought spiritual center. Stephanie has been a member of the Marin Spiritual community for 8 years professionally. She first began as an administrative assistant coordinating and overseeing events at the Unity Church in Hamilton Novato. As her time and commitment to the church evolved, she became a Sunday school teacher and after one year of service became the Director of Youth and Family ministry.

She has served on the Marin Interfaith Council for two years and she will be serving as an Interim Programs Associate this coming year.

Jordan Hopstone bio

Jordan was born and raised in the bay area. He grew up in Walnut Creek, met his wife, Dona, at San Francisco State University, and they still call San Francisco their home. Jordan achieved a bachelor's degree in Jewish Studies and a master's degree in Experiential Education, and has been working in Jewish Education since 2008. He is currently the Youth and Teen Leadership Coordinator at Congregation Kol Shofar, supervising educational programs for teens and youngsters. He enjoys the outdoors, and spends his free days surfing.

Thor Olsen bio

Thor is a student and works as a tutor in math, science, and philosophy. He began the atheists and skeptics club at his school Santa Rosa Junior College. The goal of the club is to inspire constructive discussion between people of faith or non-faith backgrounds and hopefully promote a less negative view of each other's world views.